Our Classes

Classes are organized by day, age, studio, and teaching artist. Projects vary from class to class and semester to semester, so there are always new things to learn, fresh ideas to pursue, and familiar skills to build upon, no matter which studio you choose.

Our Studios

All classes teach and reinforce arts fundamentals while nurturing personal artistic growth through:

- Foundational skills building
- Creative exploration
- Critique
- Demonstration and Performance
- History and Process
- Collaborative and Independent Projects
- Community building
- Empathy

Visual arts

An exploration of art and design concepts, styles, and inspiration found throughout history provides a rich context for student discovery and development in 2- and 3- dimensional media. Choose from a drawing and painting, sculpture or mixed media emphasis. Projects in all classes encourage creativity and imagination while providing foundational knowledge and skills building using a wide variety of traditional and contemporary techniques and materials.

Ceramics

Create functional and sculptural works of art in clay utilizing the processes of hand building with coils and slabs, wheel throwing for advanced classes, and extended decorative techniques. Careful consideration of forms, designs, and uses, along with excellent craftsmanship are emphasized

Photography

Study of basic digital and darkroom processes combined with exploration of extended and experimental photographic techniques provide a framework for building an expressive toolbox that invites students to develop a creative vision, spatial literacy, and a compelling narrative through photography and includes elements of bookmaking and printmaking.

Recreational Dance

Expect an emphasis on fun, fitness and footwork while learning the styles and steps found in many popular and social dance forms.

Applied Dance

A focus on development of proper technique and performance practices in ballet, tap, modern and jazz enables students to perfect skills through a series of sequential class levels.

Music

Private instruction, small ensembles, and musicianship classes incorporate ear training, composition, history, theory and recital opportunities to provide a comprehensive education while instilling a love and appreciation for music.

Integrated Arts and Humanities

Arts and literature based inquiry featuring a wide range of activities and projects exploring themes, stories and ideas that encourage students to engage expansively and creatively with the world around them.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can my child register for class even if she doesn't meet the minimum age requirement?
CHAW maintains a strict age policy so that curriculum for each class is developmentally appropriate for all the students in a class. Every child deserves to be set up for success with activities providing the right balance of challenge and comfort.

Do you have discounts?
CHAW offers a 10% off the registration of equal or lesser value of any sibling after one child in a family is registered at the regular tuition. CHAW also offers a 10% discount to Military families.

How does tuition assistance work?
Tuition assistance is awarded on need, not family income level. Tuition assistance forms are submitted with your registration and typically processed within 1-3 business days. You will receive notification via email and US mail of your assistance amount. Once your acceptance letter is returned and arrangements for the payment of any balance are made, your child will be registered for class.

Can I register late?
Yes, with instructor permission. Tuition will be prorated from the first class.

If my child can't come to all of the classes, do I have to pay the full amount?
Yes, a spot has been reserved for your child regardless of whether he or she attends.

My child has a learning disability. Can she attend CHAW?
CHAW makes every effort to meet students where they are and will work closely with parents and teachers to ensure each student has the opportunity to succeed. To find out whether our classes are a good fit for your child please contact education@chaw.org

How do refunds work?
If a class has insufficient enrollment, CHAW reserves the right to cancel the class. We will then refund all tuition payments. If a student wishes to withdraw from a class, notice must be made to CHAW in writing.

What is village time?
Village is our central gathering place for students when they are not in class. There is no additional fee for village time but students must be enrolled in an after school class to be eligible. Village time is when students can have a snack, do homework, play games, make crafts or participate in special art projects led by guest teaching artists.

Can your van come to my school?
Vans routes are determined by enrollment of students at CHAW from a school and proximity of the school to CHAW. We are able to provide van service to most schools on Capitol Hill. All Around Transportation is a local van service that can be arranged directly by parents for schools that are not on the CHAW route.

Can my child and I visit a class before signing up.
Yes. Just let us know when you'd like to come.

American Youth Chorus

Established in 2008, American Youth Chorus (AYC) is Congressional Chorus' after-school music program for students ages 8 to 14 from all over the Washington Metropolitan Area. Founded on the premise that all children, regardless of socio-economic background, deserve a high-quality music education, AYC offers students a performance-based choral program that encourages young people to develop their voices, creativity and self-esteem in a fun and supportive environment. The curriculum focuses on healthy vocal production and technique, basic music theory, music sight-reading skills, singing in two and three-part harmony, stage presence, cooperation within an ensemble, and artistic discipline.

The AYC is divided into two divisions:- Junior Division (ages 8 to 10) rehearsing on Tuesdays from 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm; and Senior Division (ages 11 to 14) rehearsing on Thursdays from 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm. Capitol Hill Arts Workshop Rehearsal: 545 7th St SE, Washington, DC 20003.
